1973 REFLECTIONS

Published by
Senior Class of '73

Wellington High School
Wellington, Illinois
Volume 2

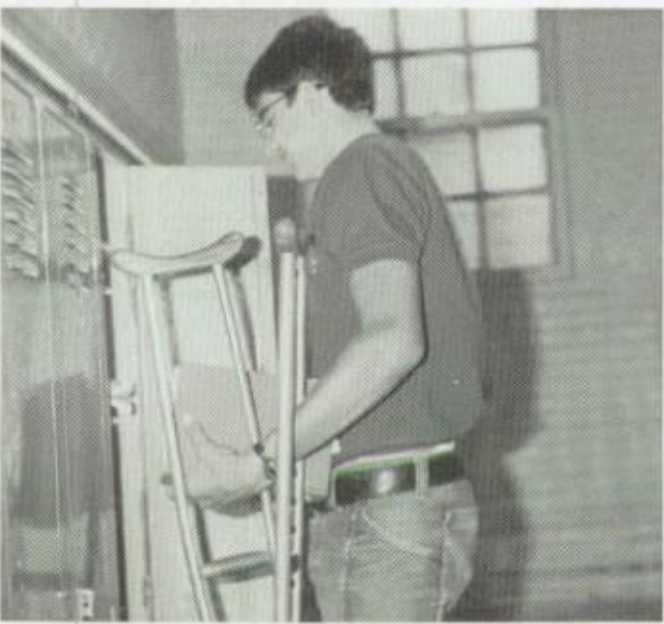

The Annual Staff of 1973 wishes to dedicate the 1973 REFLECTIONS to two people who we feel are special to our class. Their guidance, friendship, and humor was known to each and every one of us. To Mr. Richard Fulton and Mr. Richard Gibson, we can only say Thank you for holding our class together and for making our high school years ten times more fun.

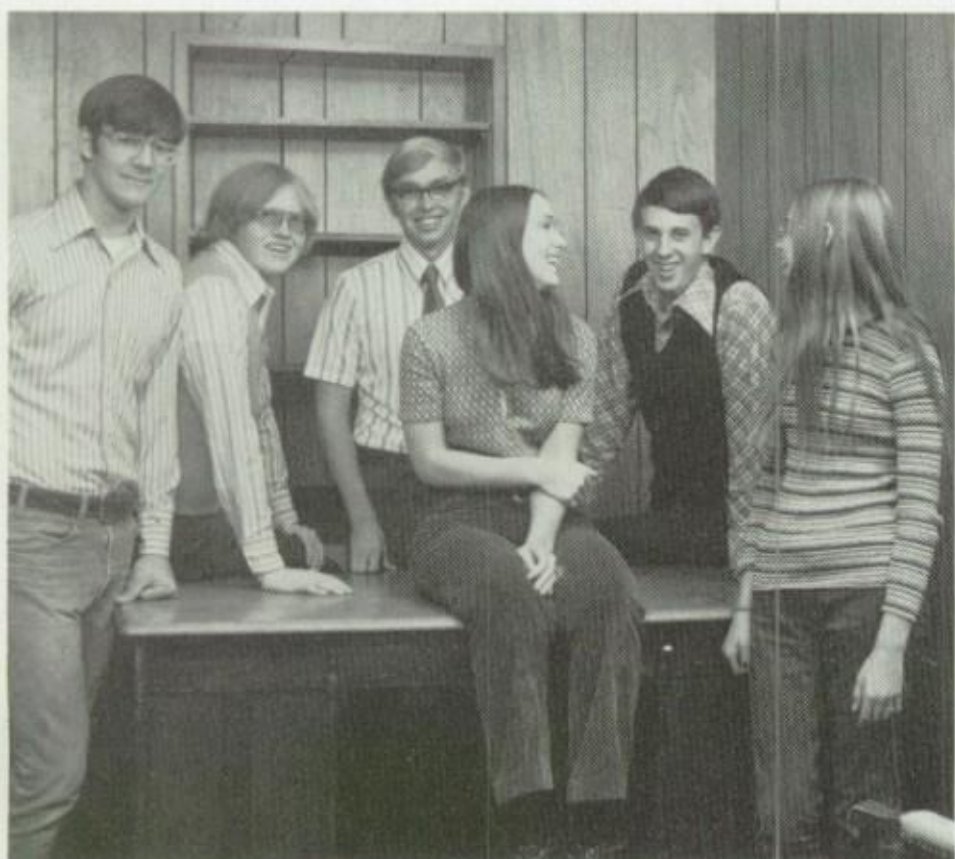

Editors

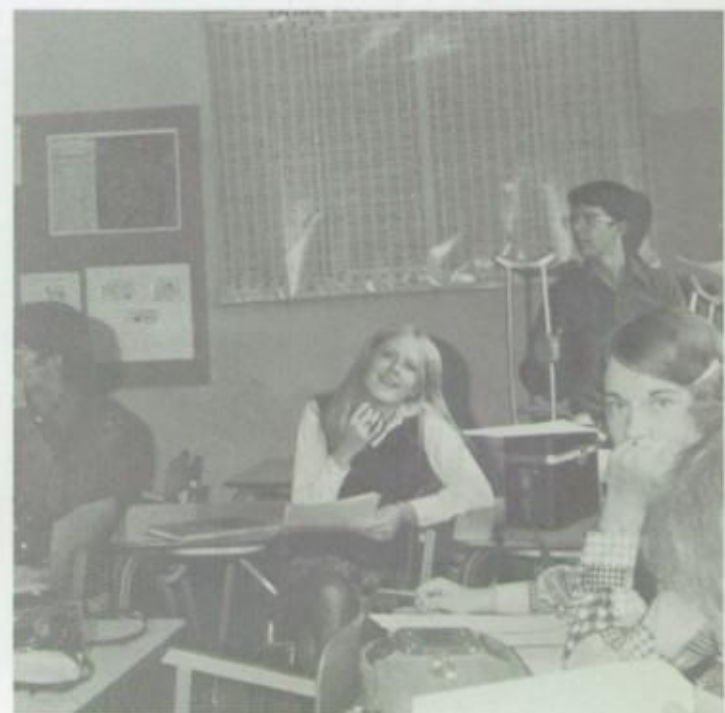

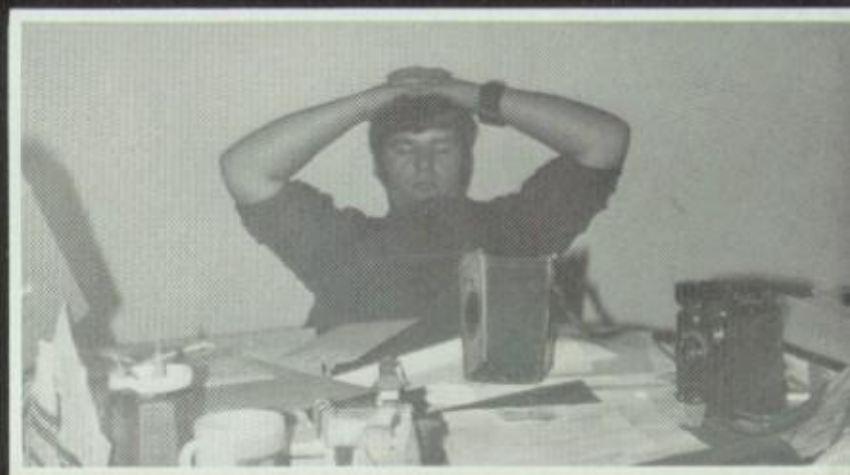

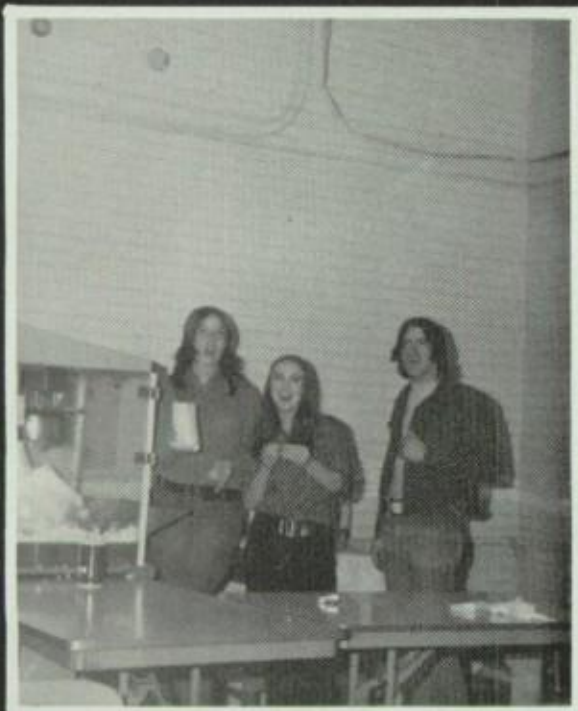

We are happy to present to you 1973 REFLECTIONS. We hope to share a part of the fun and memories that we leave behind us. A very big thank you goes to Miss Jan Sturm. Without her help, our book would have never been finished. We hope that you enjoy these memoirs, and don't ever forget the CLASS OF '73.

A large, bold, black number '65' is centered on the page. The number is stylized with thick strokes. The '6' has a circular bottom loop, and the '5' has a horizontal top bar. The number is white against a black background.

To Our Sponsor

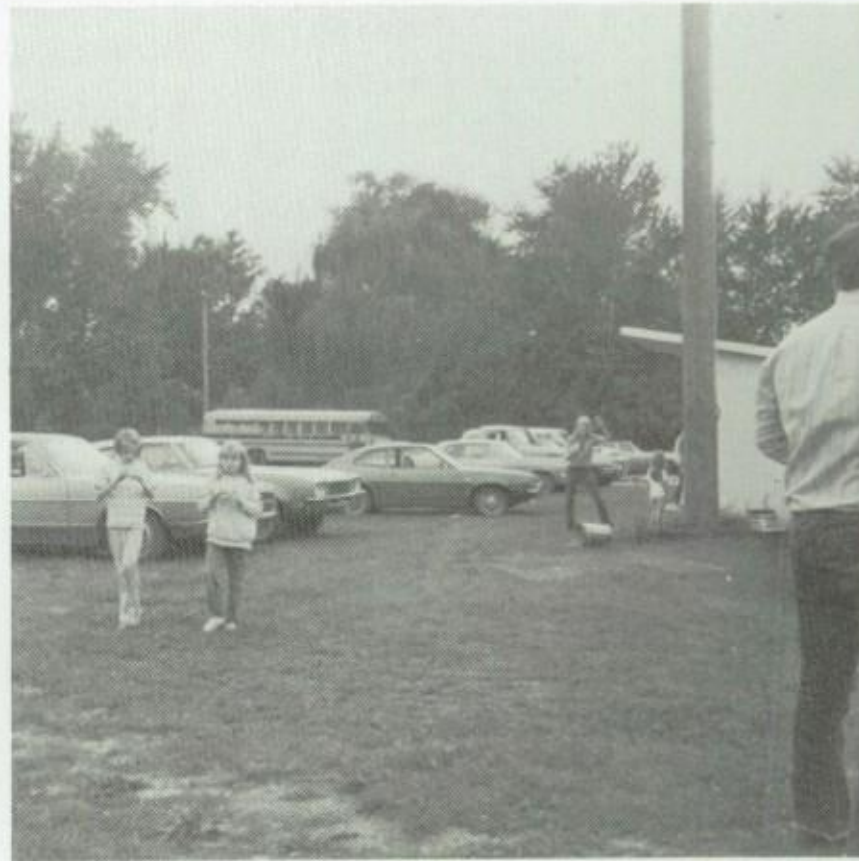

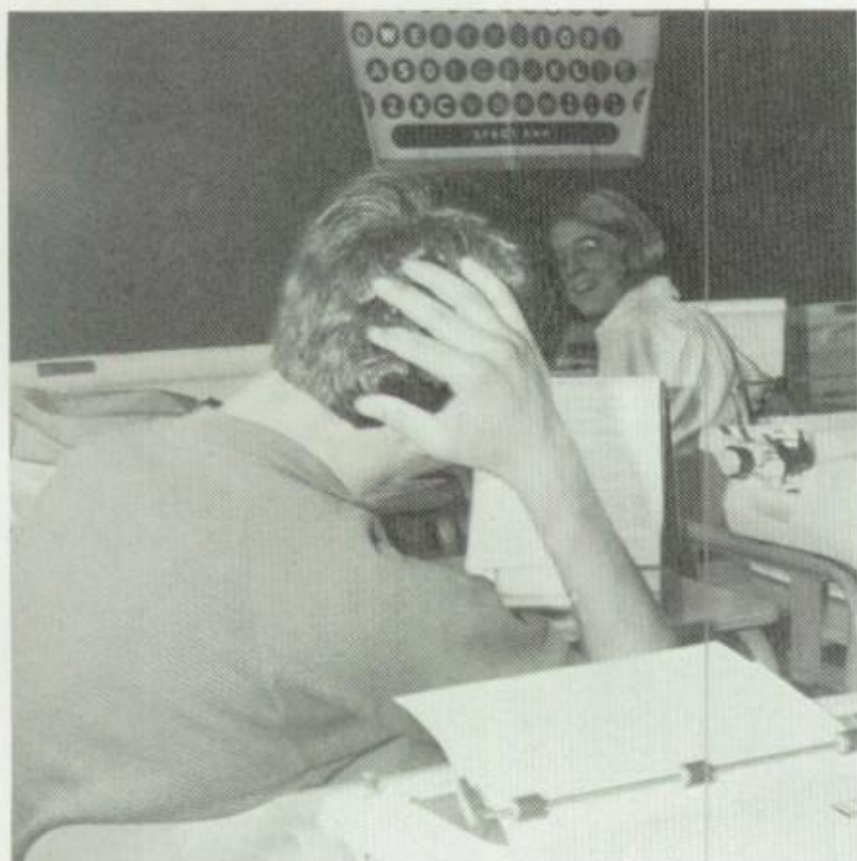

We, the annual staff of 1973, wish to express our sincere thanks to a fine lady, Miss Jan Sturm. Without her help and guidance, the 1973 REFLECTIONS would have never got out. Miss Sturm, we really appreciate all your help and your friendship. Thank you.

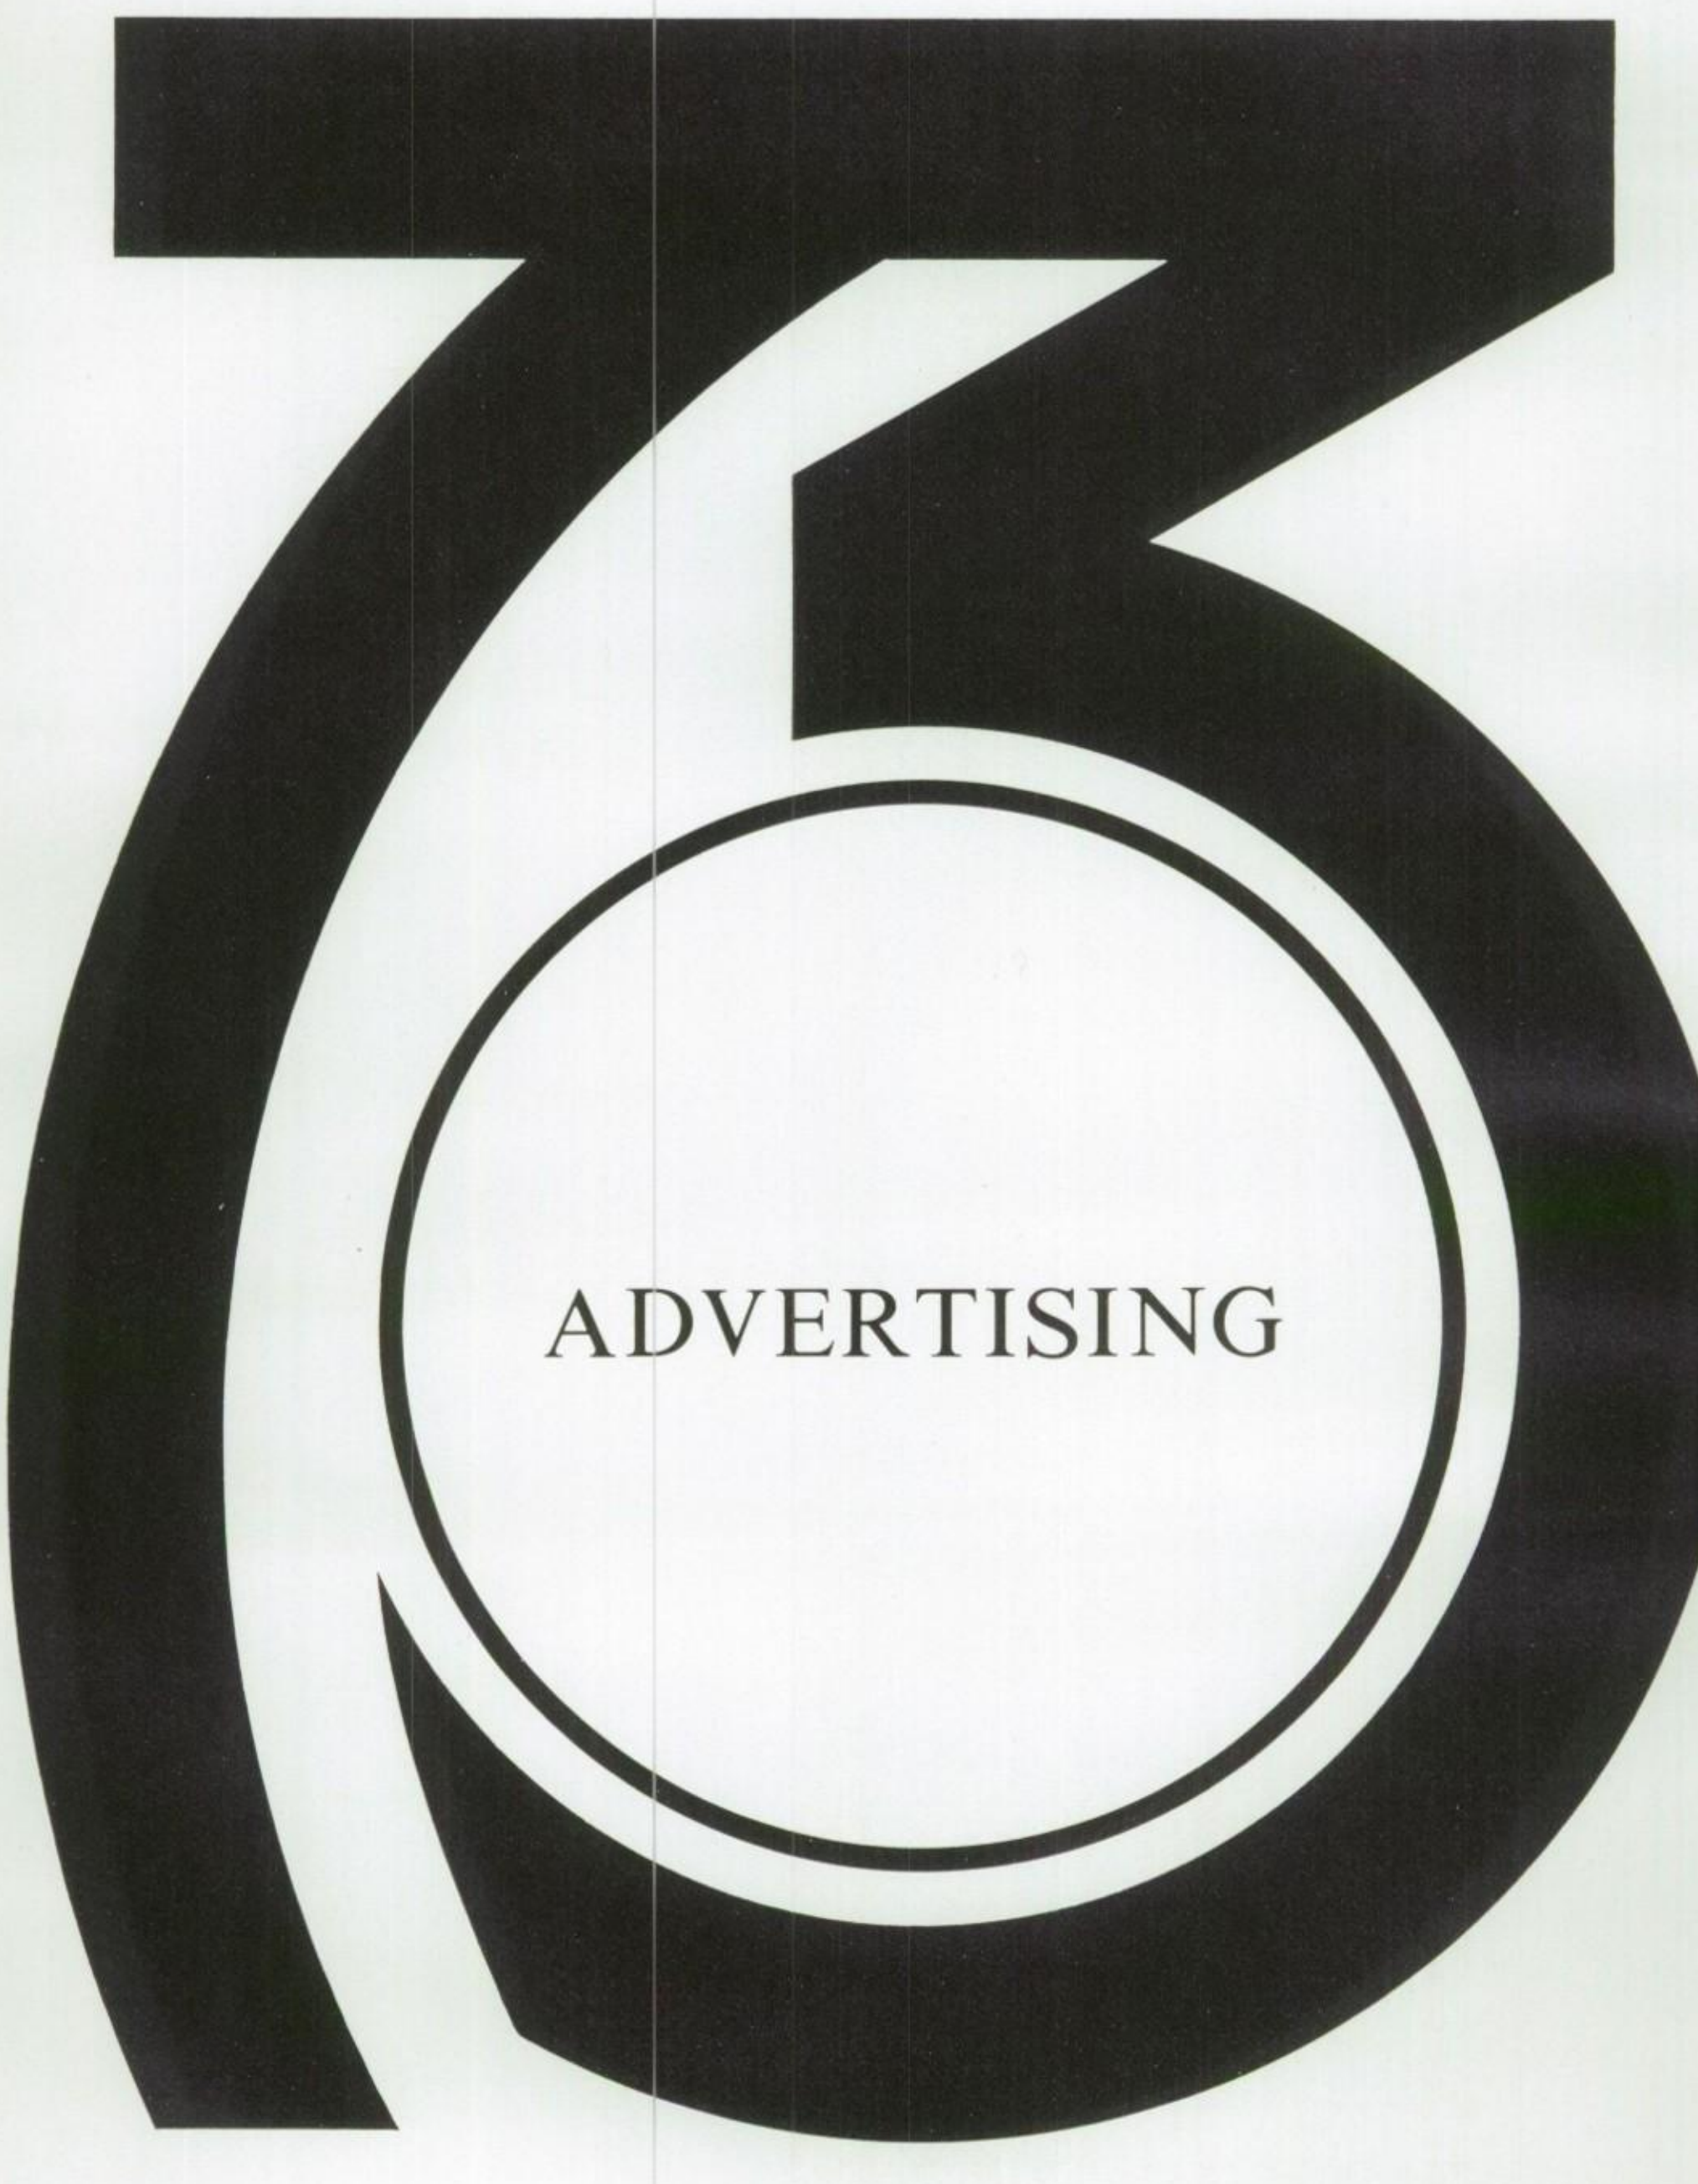

A large, stylized black letter 'G' dominates the left and top portions of the page. Inside the curve of the 'G', there are two concentric white circles. The word 'ADVERTISING' is printed in a black, serif, all-caps font, centered within the space between these two circles.
